

Privacy and security

To support your use of the ADG we, Target Holding B.V., need to register some of your information. As the controller we consider taking proper care of your data of utmost importance. Therefore we treat all information you provide as confidential.

In this privacy statement we explain how we process your data. If you have any questions, remarks or complaints please contact us at privacy@tgho.nl.

What is your data used for?

Your data is used for the following purposes:

- To register your personal account for the ADG
- To enable the ADG to provide you with relevant information
- To analyze the way the ADG is used, in order to better align the ADG with your needs in the future.

Based on your data, the ADG does not make autonomous decisions which affect you or other people.

How long do we store your data?

The ADG only stores your data as long as your account exists. You may delete your account at any time.

If you use the ADG without a personal account, we only store the data you provide for as long as needed to be of service to you.

For security reasons we store your IP address up to a maximum duration of 1 month. Whenever a user attempts to access functionality that is not part of the intended functionality provided by the ADG, this can be considered suspicious activity. As a result, the IP address may be stored for a maximum of 2 years for security purposes.

Any statistics based partly on your data will be stored, but cannot be used to identify you.

Special and/or sensitive personal data

The ADG has no intention to process information of users younger than 16 years of age, unless they are permitted to use the ADG by their legal guardians. However, we have no reliable way to determine the actual age of users. We therefore advise parents to be involved in their children's online internet activities to prevent any data being gathered without their permission.

If you feel that we gathered personal data from minors without proper permission, please contact us at privacy@tgho.nl. We will remove the data upon your request.

Data protection

All your data is protected by state of the art technology. This ensures that your data cannot be accessed by parties who have no business doing so.

If you feel that this is not happening in an appropriate way, please contact us at privacy@tgho.nl.

Sharing personal data with third parties

Target Holding B.V. does not sell your data to third parties. Your data is only shared when this is needed for proper operation of the ADG, or to fulfill lawful obligations.

Any data we share with third parties is based on a data processing agreement with these parties. This agreement ensures that the parties process your data under the same terms that we do. Any shared data will be as restricted in scope and size as possible, given the purpose for which it is shared.

Cookies

For proper operation the ADG uses cookies.

The ADG may also make use of third party cookies like Google Analytics. These cookies allow us to analyze the operation and usage of the ADG.

Viewing, correcting or removing your data

You are entitled to view your data stored by the ADG, and you are entitled to have your data corrected or removed. You can send a request to do so to privacy@tgho.nl.